

UV20483 - Follow Health and Safety Practice in the Salon

1. Health and safety rules should always be displayed

- A in a prominent position

2. The difference between legislation and workplace policies is that legislation is

- government led and workplace policies are salon led

3. Electricity at work legislation states that

- a qualified and competent person must check all electrical appliances regularly

4. Personal protective equipment (PPE) legislation states that

- the employer has a duty to select equipment for use which is properly constructed and kept

5. Maintaining a clean, safe and hygienic salon is the responsibility of

- all salon staff

6. A risk is

- how likely it is that a hazard will cause harm

7. An example of a common salon hazard is

- a trailing wire

8. Which of the following hazards should be referred to a senior team member?

- A leaking bottle of chemicals

9. Gloves should be worn during chemical services to help prevent

- dermatitis

10. Controlling hygiene and infection within the salon will ensure that

- the spread of disease and the risk of cross-infection will be reduced

11. An effective way to maintain hygiene between clients within the salon is to

- sanitise all surfaces

12. MISSING

13. For an electrical fire you should use an extinguisher containing

- dry powder

14. Using the incorrect fire extinguisher could

- increase the risk of injury

15. It is important to record and report accidents in order to

- ensure health and safety policies are followed

Bacterial Folliculitis

Impetigo sore

Severe contact dermatitis

